REPORT

Date November 23, 1936.

Subject Arrival in Shanghai of Dr. H.B. GUHL, representative of the Berlin "Eildienst."

Made by D.S. Pitts. Forwarded by T. Lynn L.S.S.

Arriving in Shanghai on November 17, 1936 from the United States by the "Chichibu Maru" was a Dr. H.B. GUHL.

This gentleman, a German, has come to China as representative of the Berlin "Eildienst," an official organ of the German Ministry of Finance, by which it is subsidised. The paper is non-political in character and deals entirely with affairs of an economic nature in order that German trade and manufacturing concerns may be au fait with matters affecting their types of business in foreign countries. "Eildienst" is not a newspaper in the accepted sense of the word, since it contains nothing but economic news and is never placed on sale, but distributed gratis to those German centres dealing in foreign commerce, or those centres interested in such.

Dr. Guhl, who has served in a similar capacity in the United Kingdom and the United States for a number of years, is at present residing at 1411 Broadway Mansions. In addition to the above duties as representative of the "Eildienst" it is said that he will also undertake the task of acting as a medium in arranging credits for German firms dealing in China.

A copy of "Eildienst," which means "Express-Service" is attached herewith. A glance at this publication will immediately indicate the type of work which it undertakes.
